

Yes, We have photographing Supplies

You miss half the fun if you don't own a Kodak. We carry a full Eastman line from a simple little Brownie to the newest creations in the camera line.

You can increase the certainty of getting the best results by leaving your films here for developing. You save money too. Will you give us a trial?

Kelly Drug Co.

The Rexall Store
BIG STONE GAP, VA.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Tom Williams was visiting friends in Pennington Gap Sunday.

Miss Olga Horton spent Saturday and Sunday at Osaka visiting her mother, Mrs. Mollie Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Daugherty and little son and Mrs. Perry motored up to Appalachia Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. McCormick and Miss Sara Cochran spent a few hours in Appalachia Monday afternoon.

L. T. Winston left Monday for a visit to Asheville, Washington and New York.

Miss Corinne Taylor returned home Thursday from a month's visit to Mrs. W. E. Littlewood at Toms Creek.

Miss Corrie Stidham, of near Olinger, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Grover Barney, went up to Stonega Saturday to spend a few days.

Mrs. P. M. Reasor spent one day last week at Stonega visiting her brother, Dr. Con. Barker.

Miss Thelma Baker, who is teaching at Roda, spent the week-end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker.

Ross Chandler, a member of the faculty of the Appalachia schools, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Attorney F. A. Groseclose, of Toms Creek, was visiting in the Gap Sunday.

H. L. Lane, C. F. Felts, Gale Barron, Will Quillen and Ransom Bishop, all employees of the Royal Laundry here, spent Saturday night and Sunday on High Knob gathering chestnuts and report a most pleasant trip.

Mrs. Henry Morison has been spending several days in Cincinnati with Mr. Morrison, who has a position there.

Misses Janet Bailey, Margaret Barron and Elizabeth Sprinkle spent Sunday afternoon in Appalachia.

Miss Alice Bruce, who is teaching at Dorchester, spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks in the Gap.

Mrs. H. E. Benedict and daughter, Miss Sophia, spent Sunday at Appalachia.

J. V. Alfriend and family, of Washington, D. C., who spent several days in this section touring Wise County in an automobile, returned to their home last Wednesday.

Mrs. M. P. Christophus, and little boy, of El Paso, Texas, arrived in town Monday morning, where she will spend several days visiting her father, T. T. Tucker.

T. H. Pugh, of Pennington Gap, was a business visitor in town Monday.

Cook with Electricity.

Billy Gish was up from Pennington Monday and met several of his friends here who well remember his famous baseball career in the 90's, when he managed the famous Pennington Gap team and carried away many laurels from Big Stone Gap.

Mrs. Owen Upchurch, of Kingsport, is spending several days in the Gap with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stewart.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Hugh Sleep, who has been very ill for several days, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Hamblen, of the Cove, spent Sunday in the Gap with Miss Janie Sleep on Poplar Hill.

Mrs. J. C. Moore and daughter, Miss Nell, have returned to their home in Kansas City, after a few days visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bunn.

Cook with Electricity.

A. B. Tilton, who has a position with the Virginia Iron, Coal & Coke Company at Toms Creek, was a visitor in the Gap Sunday.

A. M. Kinnaird, a prominent insurance agent, of Middlesboro, Ky., was a business visitor in town Saturday.

Dr. C. B. Bowyer, head physician for the Stonega Coke and Coal Company at Stonega spent Saturday afternoon in the Gap.

Operating the typewriter without looking at the key board forms one of the modern methods of instructions at the Smith Brothers' Shorthand School on Wood Avenue.

Mrs. W. N. Wagner has returned from a two weeks visit to her daughter in Graham.

Miss Ida Baker is spending a few days at Dante visiting her sister, Miss Julia Cox is substituting for her in the telephone office.

Misses Janet Baker, of Dryden, and Julia Cox spent Sunday at Osaka.

Cook with Electricity.

Miss Mae Williams returned Saturday night from a two weeks visit to her grandfather and other relatives in Clinchport and Gate City.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Graber, on Tuesday morning, an eleven pound boy.

You can become a Stenographer before next spring-time by starting in to study now at Smith Brothers' Shorthand School in the Northern Methodist Church Building on Wood Avenue.

Spelling is made a special and separate course of study at Smith Brothers' Shorthand School recently opened here on Wood Avenue.

Eugene Horton, of Jonesville, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting Lindsey Horton and family.

J. B. Daugherty, of the auditing department of the Stonega Coke & Coal Company at this place, spent several days last week in Scott County visiting relatives.

Miss Pearl Miller returned to her home at Norton Sunday morning after a visit of several days in the Gap with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Hisel.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Pugh, of St. Paul, spent Saturday and Sunday in town visiting Mrs. Pugh's parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Orr.

Cook with Electricity.

Miss Gladie Gilly, who is teaching at Sutherland, spent the week-end with homefolks in the Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Willis, of Dante, are spending a few days in the Gap with Oscar's mother, Mrs. R. P. Willis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gilly returned home Friday afternoon after a visit of several days with relatives at Osaka and Stonega.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mahaffey and daughter, Mrs. C. E. Davis, spent Sunday at Deep Springs visiting the family of Harrington Naiper.

Mrs. C. R. Cassell, of Waterloo, Iowa, has been spending several days in the Gap visiting Mrs. John Taylor. Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Taylor were schoolmates at Martha Washington College several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wampler entertained at supper Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pugh, of St. Paul, Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Orr. On Monday evening for supper they entertained Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Martin, Rev. Paul Martin, Misses Mary Blair and Lucile Martin.

Mrs. James R. Taylor left this week for Cincinnati, where she will spend a few weeks visiting her mother and friends.

Misses Mary Blair and Lucile Martin spent the week-end with Misses Edith and Ethel Van Gorder down at their home near the Extract plant.

H. E. Fox left Sunday night on a business trip to Harlan, Ky.

Cook with Electricity.

There is nothing that will give any more pleasure for so long a time for so little money as the four monthly magazines we send our subscribers. Are you getting these magazines? If not, write or phone us.

Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, of Middlesboro, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Martin Wells, in the Gap.

Miss Margaret Pierpont, of Washington, D. C., arrived in the Gap Friday night to spend a few weeks visiting her brother, J. H. Pierpont, on Imboden Hill.

Misses Myrtle Wolfe and Kate Brown, who are teaching at Pennington Gap, spent the week-end with homefolks in the Gap.

Masters Everett and Billy Drennen returned last week with their nurse from a visit to their grandparents, Judge and Mrs. Wm. Miller, in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Rev. M. P. Carico, D. D., Presiding Elder on the Big Stone Gap District, will preach at Trinity Methodist Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Let every member of the church try to be present. The public is cordially invited.

D. R. Doak and family left Saturday morning for Bristol, where Mr. Doak has accepted a position with the King Printing Company.

Quite a crowd of democrats went to Appalachia last night, where they heard Hon. E. Lee Trinkle, democratic candidate for congress, address a large and enthusiastic crowd.

LOST:—One dark bay horse with white hind foot. Reasonable reward for his return to Mrs. Mary J. Hubbard, Cadet, Va.

Mrs. J. C. Richardson, Miss Bonnie Hutcherson and Mr. George Hutcherson motored to Big Stone Gap Sunday.—Middlesboro Three States.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jesse, of Big Stone Gap, Va., were here the first of the week visiting friends and relatives.—Middlesboro Three States.

O. O. Van Gorder, superintendent of the Extract Plant, returned Monday morning from a two months business trip to Harrison. George Moore, of Johnson City, filled the vacancy very efficient while Mr. Van Gorder was away.

Misses Louise Goodloe, Ruby Kemper, Adelaide Pettit and Catherine Peyton, Messrs. Willard Miller, James Reynolds, Reginald Smith and Edward Goodloe, chaperoned by Mrs. E. E. Goodloe, motored Saturday morning up to the High Knob, where they spent the day very enjoyable.

Miss Georgia Cox spent Sunday night with her sister, Helen Cox Collins, at Roda.

J. W. Rush, chief representative of the new Lowry Wholesale Fruit Company Branch house at Appalachia spent three days this week at town in Lee County.

Mrs. J. C. Moore, of Kansas City, who has been spending a few days in the Gap visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. E. Bunn, died very suddenly Sunday night from heart failure at the home of her brother, A. L. Sturm at Appalachia. Her remains were taken back to Kansas City for burial Monday night.

Miss Edna Gilly will lead the Epworth League at the Southern Methodist Church Sunday night at seven thirty o'clock. The league is studying this year the African Mission Fields, which will be the topic of discussion Sunday night.

Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Martin and family, Rev. Paul Martin, Misses Mary Blair and Lucile, left this morning for their new home in Abingdon. During their stay of four years in the Gap they have made many warm friends, who will regret their departure very much.

Miss Lula Gilly, of East Stone Gap, visited her sister, Mrs. W. R. Williams, at Appalachia, last week and also attended the revival meeting being held there at the Baptist Church.

John Turner, who has been working for Davis and Company in Claiborne County, Tenn., returned to Norton Sunday. He goes to Dickenson County to take charge of the construction of the Pike Road between Cranes Nest and Fullers Gap.—Norton Progress.

O
V
E
R
C
O
A T
S

W. W. Taylor & Sons
BIG STONE GAP, VA.

A Motto

is not much good unless it is lived up to. Sentiment is a good thing to have, but putting it is much better. The result is all we can expect our customers to care about. No matter how hard we might strive to please unless we actually do please, our efforts are in vain.

In Practice

Hisel's Meat Market
In Polly Building. BIG STONE GAP, VA.

What Can A Good Woman Do To Save A Man From Himself?

THIS IS ONE OF THE BIG QUESTIONS ANSWERED IN

A Woman's Power

The World Film Corporation's New William A. Brady Screen Sensation

Presenting the Endeaving Young Star

MOLLY KING

It Tells A Story Every Woman Should Know.

Amuzu Theatre
TOMORROW NIGHT

They will save in insurance on your house, for they can't burn. And in addition they are permanent, weather-proof, fine in appearance and inexpensive.

For Sale by

JOSHUA & JOHN F. MULLINS, Big Stone Gap, Va.

Buy your Stationery and Office Supplies from the Wise Printing Company.

CANDY A TONIC

When tired, nervous and run down, try eating good candy. You will be surprised how quickly it will revive you and make you 'fit.'

Sugar is Nature's Stimulant and sugar forms the basis of all really good candy.

Our Candies and Confections are the Best, and Always Fresh.

We have them in great variety and at a wide range of prices.

Mutual Drug Company

INCORPORATED

BIG STONE GAP, VA.